

Dementia Conference
Monday 12th June 2017
The Royal College of General Practitioners
30 Euston Square, London NW1 2FB

9.30am	Arrival and refreshments
10.00am	Welcome and Introduction	Dr Crystal Oldman , Chief Executive, QNI
10.10am	Health Education England policy perspective: Dementia education - Where are we now?	Professor John Clark , Dean and Director of Nursing, Southern Region, Health Education England
10.25am	Finding Patience: an inspirational film by Health Education England
10.40am	Living with dementia – a partner’s perspective	Dr Christine Wise
11.10am	Refreshments
11.40am	Admiral Nurses – leading the way on dementia care	Dr Hilda Hayo , Chief Admiral Nurse and CEO Dementia UK
12.10pm	Panel questions and discussion
12.45pm	Lunch
1.45pm	Finding Patience – the later years: an inspirational film by Health Education
2.00pm	Health Education England	Speaker to be confirmed
2.30pm	Working Together to Support Dementia: The STEMS Model	Caroline Ellis , Memory Assessment Nurse, Queens Nurse, Bodmin Hospital
3pm	Refreshments
3.30pm	Innovation in practice: caring for people with dementia in care homes	Julia Atherton , Director of Quality and Care, Barchester Care Home Invited
4pm	Summary and close	Dr Crystal Oldman , Chief Executive, QNI