

Transition of Care – Young Peoples Transition Project

Friday 10th November, 2017
 The Royal College of General Practitioners
 30 Euston Square, London NW1 2FB

9.30am	Arrival and refreshments
10.00am	Welcome and Introduction	Dr Crystal Oldman CBE Chief Executive, QNI
10.10am	Key Note address	Kath Evans, Head of Patient Experience – Maternity, Newborn, Children and Young People, Nursing Directorate, NHS England Confirmed
10.40am	Young Persons Transition Experience	Hannah Phillips, QNI Project Advisory group member Confirmed
11.10am	Refreshments and poster viewings
11.40am	Transition Improvement Project at Great Ormond Street Hospital	Nigel Mills Transition Improvement Manager, Great Ormond Street Hospital Confirmed
12.10pm	QNI Transition of Care learning resource and film	Dr Candice Pellett OBE Queen's Nurse, Transition of Care Project Manager, QNI Confirmed Sandra Lawton OBE Queen's Nurse, QNI Chair of Advisory Group and QNI Fellow Confirmed
12.30pm	Lunch and poster presentations
1.30pm	Parents perspective on transition of health care services from childhood to adulthood..... Samee's Story	Feisal Jassat, Parent and Lay Member, North Durham CCG Confirmed Samee Jassat, Invited

Times and programme subject to change without prior notice.

2.00pm	Improving engagement and communication in transition for young people	Carrie James, Queen's Nurse, Health Transition Case Manager Chris Berns, Health Transition Clinical Support Worker Walsall Healthcare NHS Trust Confirmed
2.30pm	Importance of Multi - Disciplinary Working	Michelle Shore, Senior Paediatric Occupational Therapist Walsall Healthcare NHS Trust Confirmed
2.45pm	Refreshments and poster viewings
3.15pm	NICE Quality Standards and the transition buddy: how to ensure young people are prepared for transition	Su Madge, Consultant Nurse Royal Brompton and Harefield NHS Foundation Trust Confirmed
3.45pm	Announcement: winners of the poster competition	Sandra Lawton OBE Queen's Nurse, QNI Chair of Advisory Group and QNI Fellow Confirmed
4.00pm	Closing remarks	Dr Crystal Oldman CBE Chief Executive, QNI Confirmed
4.15pm	Close

Times and programme subject to change without prior notice.