

STUDENT NURSE MythBusters

The Queen's Nursing
Institute

#5 School nurses mostly give out plasters and cough mixture

Many people don't realise how much a school nurse actually does. School nurses often look after students with complex medical needs, such as diabetes. They are also involved in health promotion, screening, safeguarding as well as immunisations.

Find out more: www.qni.org.uk/students